State of Texas Bylaws

The Texas State Alumnae Association Bylaws have not been reviewed since 2015 and are in need of updating. Most of the revisions simply moved officer job descriptions and specifics into the standing rules. Some of the major revisions being considered include: (a) changing the name of our Association to the State of Texas, (b) replacing TSELF with a Foundation Ambassador role and (c) changing the composition of the voting body at State Convention.

You can find the following documents here.

- Texas State Alumnae Association Bylaws (2015)
- State of Texas Proposed Bylaws (2019)
- State of Texas Proposed Standing Rules (2019)
- State of Texas Convention Guidelines (2019)

If you have any questions or concerns, we are asking you to submit them through the 2019 Bylaw Revision Form so we can keep a list of questions/suggestions/concerns to be presented prior to the business meeting. We will respond to your submission within 48 hours.

If you have questions, please feel free to reach out to Parliamentarian Sara Petrey or President Jessica Tom.
